AUTHOR'S NOTE

In the more than 75 years since the publication of Mallman's "Historical Papers on Shelter Island and Its Presbyterian Church," a wealth of new or supplementary material has become available on the lineage of the Havens family, with which the genealogical pages of Mallman's work were principally concerned. Some of it is to be found in published works like Mather's "Refugees of 1776 from Long Island to Connecticut," much has been published in periodicals like the New York Genealogical & Biographical Record, and a great deal has been researched by private individuals.

As one of the descendants of William Havens of Rhode Island, the first to arrive in this country, and of the Havenses who early settled in Suffolk County, New York, I have been particularly concerned with the genealogy of this family. In the course of my research, it very soon became apparent that it was necessary to consult very widely dispersed sources. As a consequence, it occurred to me that I could perform a useful service for the benefit of other genealogists in, or interested in, this family by organizing and assembling my material in the form of one publication.

The pages which follow are, as the title declares, confined almost entirely to the Havens family in Suffolk County, although they do follow some of their migrations elsewhere. They are based on Mallman's valuable work, but they contain a great deal of new material. They also contain some revisions — corrections, if you will, for Mallman, being human, was not immune to error.

The Mallman records cover only those Havens families in Suffolk County who descended from either Jonathan—313 and Hannah (Brown) Havens or John—315 and Sarah (Conkling) Havens. So far, I have been unable to uncover information on any Havens families in Suffolk County who go back to other ancestors in the third generation. It seems to me highly unlikely that the ancestry is so restricted; some names are found in the old Shelter Island records, for example, for whom I have been unable to establish the parentage. They may have been lines from George—312 who died on Fisher's Island.

To conserve time, labor and expense, the main entries in my material are limited to male heads of Havens families. Each of these is the nucleus of a family group, with attention centered on, but not limited to, the head of the household. Although the daughters are not overlooked, the information concerning them, their marriages and their children, is generally restricted, by force of circumstance, to what can be handily summarized as part of the information covering the family group.

It is interesting to note that, of all the 370-odd marriages between Havenses and other families, the family that they made the most marriages with — 13 in all — was Havens. In other words, more Havenses married Havenses than they did members of any other family.

The numbering system used has a twofold advantage. The first digit, from one to ten, indicates the generation to which the individual in question belongs, starting with William of Rhode Island as the first. The remaining digits form the distinctive number assigned to the person as an individual in that generation. For the convenience of those wishing to correlate individuals with Mallman's entries, the Mallman number and/or pagination follow, in parentheses, the name of the head of the family, at the beginning of the entry. If no Mallman data are found, it is because the main-entry individual is not found in Mallman but was uncovered by later research. I believe I have covered every Havens male in Mallman's book — and of course many more.

Source material referred to in the text is designated by R (for Reference) numbers, and documentary details are provided in Appendix I.

The greatest enrichment of the Mallman information will be found in the pages covering the first six generations. From that point on down to the tenth generation, the new or supplementary data taper off rapidly, until the final listings are almost entirely exact duplicates of Mallman's information. Even there, however, some information will be found on lines of descent that have come to light recently. In those later generations I have supplied less information on the collateral lines, excepting those not covered by Mallman, feeling that further details can be obtained from the Mallman opus itself.

There remain, of course, many riddles still to be solved, and there is much work yet to be done. A detailed extraction of statistics covering heads of families found in census records is badly needed, plus similar organized research of other records. For example, there may be a mine of information in the material accumulated by the late Judge Dwight C. Haven of Wilmington, North Carolina, who carried on extensive research of the Haven-Havens families. This material is now in the possession of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society. I believe it would be advantageous to establish contact with all Havens descendants who are interested in their family history, and the formation of a Havens Family Society would be one means of accomplishing this end.

The accumulation and preparation of my material would not have been possible without the help of many individuals scattered throughout the United States. I am particularly grateful for the assistance or contributions from Mrs. R.S. Andrews of Hillsborough, California; Mr. Charles E. Craven of Wilton, Connecticut; Samuel B. Cross, Westhampton Beach, N.Y.; Mr. & Mrs. William Hannah of the Suffolk County Historical Society – and that society's splendid library; Mrs. Charles E. Havens of San Jose, California; Mr. Edwin Havens of Arleta, California; Mr. John H. Howell of South Charleston, West Virginia; Mrs. Adele D. Jackel and other members of the staff of the Genealogy Section, New York State Library in Albany; Mr. David A. Overton, Brookhaven Town Historian, Patchogue, New York; Mr. Chester G. Osborne of Center Moriches, New York; Mr. Robert H. Pelletreau of Patchogue, New York; Mrs. W. K. Russell of Irvine, California; and my wife Jeanette, for her constant encouragement and invaluable assistance.

INTRODUCTION

The Havens family is one of those which early became established in Suffolk County, New York province. Starting from a small nucleus on Shelter Island, its descendants spread, over the years, through the county, the state and the nation.

Historians are agreed that the progenitor of the line in this country was William of Aquidneck, Rhode Island, who was first recorded in this country in 1635. Five of his 13 children were sons, and one of them, George, bought land on Shelter Island. Some of his descendants made their homes there. By the time Shelter Island as a political unit broke away from the township of Southold in 1730, the Havens family was so well established there that six of the 20 founders of the town were Havenses (R49).

Their existence was in sharp contrast to that of the present day. It has been well described by the late Rev. Charles E. Craven in his "History of Mattituck, Long Island," as follows:

"The hundred or more residents of Mattituck about the year 1700 lived the same simple life as all their neighbors on the eastern end of Long Island. They were mostly large landholders, but had little money and little use for it except to acquire more land. Each well-to-do man owned a suit of clothes, and perhaps a 'trooper's coat' made of imported cloth. These fine suits, with such accessories as silver shoe buckles, lasted for years and were handed down by will from father to son. The rest of their clothing was homespun. Their communication with the outside world, by small sloops sailing to New Haven and New York, was slow, and in winter dangerous, and they were substantially independent, sufficient unto themselves, having large flocks and herds, raising their own corn, wheat, rye and other simple foodstuffs, growing their flax, spinning and weaving their own fabrics, importing not much besides the English cloth already mentioned, sugar, molasses and rum, a very few books, chiefly Bibles, iron and brass kettles and a meagre supply of such other utensils as could not be made by the smiths at home, and occasionally silver tankards and spoons that figure in their wills."

There is a Havens tradition that some or all of the early members of the family were Quakers, were married to Quakers, or were sympathetic to them. On the other hand, it is certain that many of them were Presbyterians, for the Rev. Jacob Mallman, a Presbyterian (R1), devotes most of his genealogical listings to members of the Havens family.

By the time of the Revolutionary War, there were at least 18 heads of Havens families in Suffolk County, judging by the census of 1776. There were six households of them on Shelter Island (out of 27 census listings), five more were in Brookhaven, and seven were in Southampton. The federal census of 1790 listed 42 Havens families in New York State, 23 of them in Suffolk County — well over 50% of the state's total. The remainder were distributed throughout nine other counties, mostly in southern New York. Ten years later, the federal census showed an increase in their number to 63, of whom 26 were in Suffolk County and the remainder distributed among 15 other counties in the state. As I write this, I find 32 Havenses listed in a recent Suffolk County telephone directory.

The significance of some of the earlier figures becomes more apparent when one considers that Suffolk County had a population of 2121 in 1673, 3346 in 1703, and 5266 in 1723.

The destinations of early migrants from the Rhode Island starting point were by no means restricted to Suffolk County. A large branch of the family became established in New Jersey (R4), records show many in Connecticut, and a number went south. In the latter half of the 18th century, the lure of the frontier brought about a great westward movement throughout the colonies and the independent states that succeeded them, and many Suffolk County families became involved. When the British took possession of Long Island during the Revolutionary War, large numbers of Suffolk County patriots fled from Long Island to Connecticut and elsewhere (R2). But even before this, some Havenses, as well as others like the Strongs, the Moores, and the Tuthills, had moved westward to destinations on the mainland both within and beyond the state.

The growth of early Suffolk County families and their geographic spread were particularly vigorous in the 18th century, and the Havens family was no exception. As a consequence, quite a few Havenses are listed in censuses and other early records whom I have not been able to identify. On the other hand, there are many Havens descendants today who have been unable to find a link between their ancestors in family records and the early Suffolk County lines.

There has been, and no doubt will continue to be, some dispute over the country of Havens origin. Most records say it was Wales, but Edwin W. Havens of Arleta, California, has stated unequivocally that William—1 and his wife Dionis "came from the west of England, probably Somersetshire or Monmouthshire — almost definitely one or the other." He explains: "These are the so-called 'Marches' counties that border Wales." Mr. Havens spent some time in Great Britain in the spring of 1973 searching for records of the Havens family as starting in Wales, and his conclusion was that it did not — "the mere fact of their having given names and surnames condemned that. We checked out the National Library of Wales at Aberystwith and there were no surnames till well into the seventeenth century, and there were Havenses in the other counties nearby."

The question of relationship between the Haven and Havens families is moot. The late Judge Dwight C. Haven told me there was no such relationship. He said: "So far as there is any record, there were only two emigrants: Richard Haven of Lynn and William Havens of Portsmouth." (He believed, incidentally, that William Havens came from Wales.) Whether the two families were related before they came to this country has yet to be established.

In at least one instance there has been a shift in the other direction: instead of adding an S to Haven, one was dropped from Havens. I have been informed of this indirectly by Mrs. Blake Kocher of Tampa, Florida, whose father, the late George W. Haven, was the son of Henry Pinkerton Havens. She said: "The 'S' was somehow dropped from Havens during the time my father and his immediate family were living."

William—1, first in this country, was either English or Welsh, from all accounts. Authorities differ, but most say he was from Aberystwith, Cardiganshire, Wales. A standard source is Austin's "Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island." Information is also provided by "The Havens Family in New Jersey" by Henry C. Havens of Lawrenceville, N.J., and Munsell's "History of Suffolk County." As in so many similar situations, it is not always easy to determine who, among the various chroniclers, has done original research on the subject, in view of the rather common custom — as in my own case here — of relying on others for information. As I have done no original research of my own on this question, I have had to rely on the writings of others. However, Mr. Edwin Havens of Arleta, California, has investigated, and his conclusions are outlined in my Introduction.

William—1 joined the settlement established by the followers of Roger Williams. In 1638 he was admitted as an inhabitant of the island of Aquidneck, and in 1639 he and 28 others signed a compact binding themselves into a civic body politic subject to the laws of King Charles. He received a grant of four acres of land in 1644. He died in 1683 and his wife survived him for at least nine years. His will, dated March 24/30 1680 proved Sept 25 1683, named wife Dennis executrix and mentioned children John, Thomas, Robert, George, William, Sarah Tyler, Mary Cook, Ruth Card, Dinah Havens, Elizabeth Havens, Martha, Rebecca, and Margaret.

JOHN HAVENS—201 (M p 163 R4): son of William—1 and Dennis ----, came, it would seem, from Portsmouth, R.I. into what is now Monmouth County, N.J. at some time between Dec 2 1662, the date of the leasing of his father's home, and Jan 1 1665. "Beginning on Feb 27 1667-8 an oath of allegiance was administered to all the inhabitants of Navesink in New Jersey. This list included 24 men, of whom one was John Havens, son of William of Portsmouth, whose grant of land is set down as 120 acres". He married 1) Ann ---- 2) Anna Stannard; his descendants have been researched at length by H.C. Havens (R4); he lists the following children, saying they are probably in order of age:

First Marriage:

Jane—321 d 1739 m Aug 1686 John Shreve of Portsmouth, R.I.

Alice—322 m Thomas Wainwright.

William—323

Daughter—324 (Hannah?) m George Antone.

John—325 d 1740 m Elizabeth ----.

Second Marriage

Daniel—327 d 1740 m Christian ----.

Mrs. Edward K. Price of Larchmont, N.Y. has published (R14) a Bible record of some descendants of John—201 in the form of a family record of John Havens—5 (John—4, 3, 201) b Feb 14 1747 d Oct 13 1815 ae 68 m Jan 31 1770 Rebecca Jeffery b Nov 26 1752 d May 30 1790; they had seven children. Mrs. Price's account says the family was of Shrewsbury, Monmouth County, N.J.

THOMAS HAVENS—203 (M p 163): son of William—1 & Dennis ----, died in or before 1704. His wife is unknown; issue:

Thomas—302 — see below

Joseph—303

Phebe—304

Martha—305

He was a freeman in 1671 and a juryman in 1677. He was taxed in 1687 at Kingstown, R.I. His estate was probated in 1704, and his son William—301 was administrator.

Although Thomas—203 was not a Suffolk County man, nor is there any evidence that any of his children were either, in the interest of the broad picture, especially of the very early branches of the family, I am supplying some further information on him. He evidently was the progenitor of a Rhode Island line, and some of his descendants migrated elsewhere, as so many men did in those days. I am grateful to Mrs. W.K. Russell of Irvine, Calif., a Havens by birth, for information on her descent from Thomas—203.

Joseph—303, son of Thomas—203, born 1675 in Wickford, R.I., spouse unknown, had Sylvester, born 1728, same place, who married Sarah Davis; they had John born 1758, Lyme, Conn. d Apr 29 1824 Lyme m Nov 22 1785 Mary Saunders b Mar 22 1762 d Oct 22 1861; they had Silas b Feb 4 1794 Lyme d Jan 20 1853 Lyme m Sep 29 1826 Mariette Griffin b Dec 5 1809 d Apr 18 1884; they had Joseph b Apr 26 1835 Lyme d Oct 23 1902 Fishkill, N.Y. m Aug 5 1855 Catherine O'Shaughnessy d Feb 2 1905 Fishkill; they had James b Mar 7 1868 Fishkill d Jan 16 1938 Glen Ellen, Calif. m Susan Curtis b Jul 8 1871 Bridgeport, Conn. d Jul 10 1933 San Francisco; they had James b Jan 26 1902 Bridgeport, Conn. m Aug 12 1924 Blauvelt, N.Y. Irma Overlander b Jan 3 1904 New Haven, Conn.; they had Barbara b Jun 11 1928 W. Los Angeles, Calif., m Jul 31 1948 Laguna Beach, Cal. William K. Russell b Apr 1 1927 Anaheim, Cal., this Mrs. Russell being my correspondent.

ROBERT HAVENS—204 (M p 163 R4, 27): son of William—1 & Dennis ---- born ca 1646 died Apr 7 1712, married Elizabeth ---- who survived him; issue:

Robert—306 b 1686.

Ruth—307 b Dec 14 1690.

Elizabeth—308 b Feb 1 1694.

William—309 b Jun 1698

George—310 b Mar 24 1700.

Joseph—311 b Jun 19 1703.

On Oct 31 1677 he and 47 others were granted 5000 acres on Cowesott Bay, R.I. He was made freeman in 1678. His will, Mar 30 1708 proved Apr 7 1712, named wife Elizabeth administratrix, names children Robert, William, George, Joseph, Ruth, Elizabeth. He was first at Portsmouth, R.I. and later at Dartmouth, Mass. (R4).

A statement left by a descendant (R27) reads: "My great-great-great grandfather William—1 lived and died in England. My great-great grandfather Robert lived and died in R.I. He had three sons: Robert, Silas, Thomas. Robert died in Vermont, Silas at sea, Thomas went south. . . . My great grandfather Silas lived in Coventry, R.I., served in the French War, died at sea, captain of a slave ship. He had three sons and one died: William, Robert, Peleg, and a sister Bethany. William died in Stephentown, N.J., Robert and Bethany died in Coventry, R.I. My grandfather Peleg was born in the town of East Greenwich, Kent Co., N.Y. 1761 and died 1847."

The third generation children given in this statement do not agree with my list above, but over 100 years elapsed between the birth of Robert—204 (1646) and his grandson Peleg (1761), and this could indicate that a generation was missed during that interval and lost in the records.

GEORGE HAVENS—205 (M3 p 163): son of William & Dennis, was born 1653 Jamestown, R.I., lived Portsmouth, died Feb 21/25 1706 Shelter Island, but a N.Y. Historical Society record says letters of administration were issued Feb 11 1706—7 to wife Eleanor and the estate was inventoried Apr 4 1706. H.C. Havens (R4) says he is buried in the Old Cemetery, New London, Conn. He married 1674 Eleanor/Elinor Thurston da Edward & Elizabeth (Mott) Thurston of Newport, R.I., she b Mar 1655-8 d Nov 7 1747 ae 93; she m 2) Thomas Terry of Southold. Mallman says his will was dated Jan 11 1704 proved Mar 12 1707. Moore's Index (R3) says he was at Newport, R.I., that he bought 1000 acres on Shelter Island in 1699, and that he deeded in 1701 200 acres of it to his son Jonathan and 250 acres in 1706-7 to son John. (Mallman says Edward Thurston b 1617 d Mar 1 1707 m Jun 1647 Elizabeth da Adam Mott; she b 1629 d Sep 2 1694) (R1, 3, 4, 13, 15, 17, 20, 43, 46); issue:

George—205 was a freeman 1680 and was taxed at Kingstown, R.I. Sep 6 1687 and was a constable there Jul 15 1695. In 1696 he sold farms on Boston Neck. He was on Shelter Island in 1701 and the following year sold a farm near E. Greenwich, R.I.

He was 53 when he died in 1706-7. He was buried in a New London, Conn. cemetery (R23). He died intestate and letters of administration were issued Feb 11 1706-7 to widow Eleanor (Liber 6 NY p 156, Liber 7 p 291) — R23.

Mallman says George—312 was born on Shelter Island. In a deed he calls himself George son of George of Shelter Island. He was a resident there in 1730 (R19,23), and he owned property on both Rhode Island and Fisher's Island (R23). His will, however, was dated Fisher's Island Oct 31 1726 pr Apr 13 1738 (R1); it mentions all the above children in the above birth order but Joseph, who may have died. Mather says he lived on Fisher's Island. It seems probable he was born on Shelter Island and moved to Fisher's Island.

At least some of his children, however, must have remained on Shelter Island. The late Archibald S. Havens, Moriches historian and genealogist (Appendix II), stated that all the Havenses of Shelter Island were descended from Jonathan—313 and George—312 (R23), and I have found Shelter Island records of Havenses of that period whom I could not connect with Jonathan—313.

JONATHAN HAVENS—313 (M1 p 239): son of George—205 & Eleanor (Thurston) Havens (p 7 ), was born Feb 2 1681 Jamestown, R.I., died Aug 5 1748 ae 68 (R13); he married Jan 1 1706-7 Hannah Brown da Jeremiah—3 (John—2, Chad—1) & Mary (Cook?) John Howell of South Charlestown, W.Va., says there may have been another son John, but a family group sheet supplied by him does not show John (R43).

The will of Jonathan—313, husbandman, Shelter Island Sep 22 1746 pr Aug 13 1748 (NY Wills Liber 16 p 324, IV p 188) mentions wife Hannah, sons Jonathan, Constant, Joseph, William, George, daughters Sarah King, Hannah Havens, Jemima, Keziah Havens (R10).

Moore's Index (R3) adds son Savage, saying Jonathan was a resident of Shelter Island in 1730, inherited 100 acres there from his father in 1705 and bought 50 acres more in 1713.

The Osborn Shaw ms (R23) says Hannah Brown was the daughter of Jonathan Brown, citing Ross' "Long Island" III p 147, but John Howell, mentioned above, cites "Chad Brown of Providence, R.I. and Four Generations of His Descendants" by William Bradford Brown in disproof.

A pedigree chart prepared by the late Archibald S. Havens (R23) had the note that the Havenses of Shelter Island ca late 1700 and later were descended from this Jonathan and his brother George—312.

Mallman (R1) lists a Jonathan as town assessor on Shelter Island in 1732, and he probably was Jonathan—313.

WILLIAM HAVENS—314 (M p 163): son of George—205 & Eleanor (Thurston) Havens (p 7 ) died 1746 unmarried. His will: yeoman, Shelter Island Apr 13 1746 proved Aug 7 1746 (Lib. 16 p 34) mentions mother Eleanor, brothers George, Jonathan, John and sisters Ruth Terry, Content Payne, "Pacion" Loper, Desire Gardiner, Abigail Havens; John Havens executor (R10).

JOHN HAVENS—315 (M1 p 163): son of George—205 & Eleanor (Thurston) Havens (p 7 ) born prob ca 1685 Rhode Island (est. from siblings' birth order), died Brookhaven 1750, married Sarah Conkling da John & Sarah (Horton) Conkling, although Mallman says Sarah died unmarried (R10, 23); issue:

Sarah—430

Desire—431 m Benjamin Hawkins. His will, Brookhaven, yeoman, Jul 5 1774 pr Jan 16 1776 mentions sons William Havens Hawkins, Benjamin, Eleazer, wife Desire, daughters Sarah, Desire, Martha, Juliana Smith. Another da Sophia m William Smith son Ezekiel; Eliphalet Smith m Sarah da Benjamin & Desire (Havens) Hawkins. Benjamin was son of Eleazer and grandson of Zachariah Hawkins, one of the original proprietors of Brookhaven (R11, 14).

Mary—432 m Dec 21 1735 Daniel Brown of Shelter Island, son of Daniel & Esther (Fanning) Brown who m 2) Oct 11 1787 Henry Hudson. (R11)

John—315 was born on Shelter Island and moved to Brookhaven. He was an assessor on Shelter Island in 1734 and overseer of the poor there in 1741; he held the same post again for various terms until 1744. Moore's Index (R3) makes him resident of Shelter Island in 1730. Munsell (R19) says he moved to Brookhaven and that the Havens families in Moriches are descended from him, a viewpoint shared by the late Archibald S. Havens (R23), who declared that "nearly all the Havenses now living in the town" are descendants of John—315. His children all seem to have been born on Shelter Island, judging by a check of dates, and his son Henry—423 is given by Mallman as one of the founders of Shelter Island township.

The A.S. Havens ms (R23) says he owned land on Yaphank Neck (South Haven), Hog Neck (Southampton); in one deed he is referred to as of Shelter Island. But in his will he refers to himself as "late of Shelter Island, now of Brookhaven," and he died there in 1750. He was on the assessment roll there in 1749. The will of William Paine (R15) of Southampton says that "Jonathan Pain in 1742 sold lands to John Havens of Shelter Island. Those lands and lands adjoining were the Havens-Gleason farm." — W.S. Pelletreau. But this could also refer to John—407 son of George—312, who died on Fisher's Island, and the John who held town offices for Shelter Island could have been that John.

His will (Liber 17 NY p 287), Jun 23 1750 pr Nov 29 1750, calls him John sr and mentions eldest son Henry, third son William, dau Elinor and Sarah, sons Jonathan and Benjamin, dau Phebe, wife Sarah, dau Desire and Mary, with Nathaniel Havens a witness.

That Mallman was in error in saying it was Jonathan—425 son of John—315 who married Patience Tuthill has been well established (R23), but that he did have a son Jonathan—425 is also without question, for that son is mentioned in his will, and John is not. There seems, however, to be a complete absence of information on Jonathan—425, and his existence is shrouded in mystery (p 14 ). Another possibility is that there was no son born John but that Jonathan came to be known as John. The late A.S. Havens (R23) declared, however, that the two names were not interchangeable in those days.

FOURTH GENERATION

JOSEPH HAVENS—401 (M p 163): son of George—312 & Mary (Remington) Havens (p 8 ) was born pr ca 1700 (estimate from parents' marriage date). If he remained on Shelter Island, where his father lived before moving to Fisher's Island, he may have been the Joseph who held town office there in 1737, 1767, and 1769. I have been unable to uncover any information on him.

EDWARD HAVENS—402 (M p 163): son of George—312 & Mary (Remington) Havens (p 8 ), born pr ca 1700 (estimated from parents' marriage date), married Desire Terry in 1724 (R1, 16). He was the one listed as first collector for the Shelter Island town board in 1730. Mallman says he was one of 20 men living there at that time who organized Shelter Island into a political unit. The late Archibald Havens (R23) said that nearly all the Havenses of Shelter Island were descended from him and Jonathan—313. If this is true, and I have no reason to doubt it, then at least some of the children of George—312 must have stayed on Shelter Island.

GEORGE HAVENS—403 (M p 163): son of George—312 & Mary (Remington) Havens (p 8 ), born pr ca 1705 (estimated from parents' & siblings' marriage date), married Mary ---- and they had:

George—501 — I have no information on him.

George—403, too, probably stayed on Shelter Island, for he was undoubtedly the one who held town office in 1735 and 1738. His brother Edward—402 also held town office — see notes under Edward—402, above.

WILLIAM HAVENS—404 (M p 163): son of George—312 & Mary (Remington) Havens (p 8 ) born pr ca 1705 (see siblings) died 1766. A N.Y. Historical Society record (R15) lists a William, undoubtedly this one, who died intestate and for whom letters of administration were granted Sept 22 1766.

JOHN HAVENS—407 (M p 163): son of George—312 & Mary (Remington) Havens (p 8 ), born pr ca 1710 (see siblings) and probably was the John who died ca 1765, for the will dated May 20 1761 was proved Apr 26 1765 (R15). He may have gone to Moriches, for a probate witness was Nathaniel Smith of that place.

GEORGE HAVENS—413 (M2 p 239): son of Jonathan—313 & Hannah (Brown) Havens (p 8 ) born ca 1707 (based on sibling dates) died 1733-4, married Mary ----, who probably was the one listed in the Salmon Records (R16) as having died May 3 1786 "widow Mary Havens;" issue:

George—502 (p 17 ) pr b ca 1720 m 1) Feb 4 1747-8 (R14) Patience Booth 2) Amy/Anne Johnson.

George—413 was a resident of Shelter Island. He could be the one who was elected assessor in 1735 and overseer of the poor in 1738, but this could not be so if he died in 1733-4. His son George—502 later held office, but whether he was old enough to do so in 1738 is not known. The most likely prospect as town office holder is George—403, son of George—312 (p 8 ).

JONATHAN HAVENS—414 (M3 p 239): son of Jonathan—313 & Hannah (Brown) Havens (p 8 ), born Jan 29 1709 died Nov 1 1774 ae 66 (R1, 13, 16); married Jan 27 1728 Catherine Nicoll da William & Ann (Van Rensselaer) Nicoll, Islip patentee (R19), she born Dec 17 1700 died May 4 1779 ae 70 (R13); issue:

Anna—503 b Apr 25 1729 m Nov 28 1748 Dr. Thomas Fosdick son Thomas & Esther (Updike) Fosdick, she d Sept 24 1782 ae 53 (R13, 14); their dau Mary Ann b 1752 d Jan 11 1753 (R13).

Nicoll—505 (p 17 ) b Feb 10 1733 m 1) Sarah Fosdick 2) Desire Brown.

Catherine—506 b May 25 1735 m Dec 7 1752 Thomas Mumford; Southold Presbyterian church records (R22) give the marriage date as Sept 19 1752 to "Thomas Momfort".

Frances—507 b Feb 18 1737 d Apr 24 1758 m Ephraim Baker; their dau m ---- Colt.

Hanna—508 b May 19 1739 m William Chadwick, but other records (R17) say she married Charles Chadwick Apr 24 1759, but that may have been another Hannah.

Margaret—509 b Dec 6 1741 d unmarried Sept 23 1762.

Gloriana—510 b Oct 22 1745 m as 2d wife Charles Eldridge; no issue.

William—511 is listed as another son by Munsell (R19).

Rensselaer—512 is also listed as another son by Munsell (R19).

The tombstone of Jonathan—414 is in the Shelter Island Presbyterian Church cemetery; Nov 1774 ae 66 (R8). Letters of administration were granted in 1793 on his widow Catherine of Shelter Island to daughter Elizabeth, wife of David Howell, "only next of kin within the state" (R10, 13).

He held various Shelter Island town offices from 1736 to 1747, including assessor and supervisor. Mallman's record calls him Jonathan Jr to distinguish him from his father Jonathan—313, also of Shelter Island. Thus we know that both he and his father held town office at the same time, alternating various posts. As his father died in 1748, the offices after that date were held by Jonathan—414. He was overseer of the poor and collector & constable before he died in 1774. There was, however, another Jonathan in the picture at the time: Jonathan—516 (p 19 ).

Historian R.M. Baylor writes (R49): "In 1742 Jonathan Havens, jr. gave half an acre of ground near the middle of the Island (Shelter Island) for a meeting-house site and burying ground. In 1743 Jonathan Havens and others united in erecting a house for religious worship and obtained contributions for the purpose from the neighboring towns, and from Boston and New York as well. This was the first meeting house on the island, and its site was the same spot where the present Presbyterian church stands."

He was listed in the Shelter Island 1771 census as head of a family consisting of one male over 60, two females over 16, and one under. He was not listed in the 1776 census, having died in 1774.

CONSTANT HAVENS—415 (M4 p 240): son of Jonathan—313 & Hannah (Brown) Havens (p 8 ) born 1713 Shelter Island died Jan 3 1761 Bridgehampton, married 1) Abigail ---- b 1705-6 died Sep 10-19 1751-2 m 2) Wid Elizabeth Crook (relict of Samuel, master carpenter) da William & Rebecca Hopkins; she died Hog Neck Nov 1784 (R10). The Salmon Records (R16) give the date of Feb 18 1751 for the marriage of Constant and Elizabeth. Another record calls him Constable Havens. (R14, 22, 43).

The Tuthill genealogy (R12) gives: Mary b Jul 20 1735 Sag Harbor d Nov 12 1822 Newburgh, N.Y. m as 2d wife Nov 22 1759 Nathaniel Tuthill b July 3 1731 Long Island son of Nathaniel (b 1798) d Apr 8 1768. Spear; they had John H. who m Agnes Liston; they had John H. jr. who m Clara G. Moore; they had John H. 3d of So. Charleston who m Dorothy A. Michie.
Elizabeth—518 b 1743 died unmarried Dec 9 1823.

Second Marriage

Walter—519 b Oct 1757 d Mar 10 1759.

His will, dated Dec 22 1760 Southampton (R15) proved Jan 8 1761 mentions wife Elizabeth, sons Constant and Jonathan, daughters Abigail Terry, Mary Tuthill, Lucretia Howell, Elizabeth Havens, grandson Walter Havens. The will of his wife Elizabeth, 1784, says she was of Hog Neck and mentions grandson ----Crook; Hannah Havens a witness — she was the daughter of Elizabeth's brother-in-law Jonathan—414 (R10). The N.Y. Historical Society record of Constant's will (R15) refers to Pelletreau's "History of Shelter Island" for the genealogy of Constant—415 and his family.

Constant—415, yeoman, bought much land at Hog Neck, North Haven and was the ancestor of families there and of the Gleasons at Sag Harbor (R19). One record (R14) gives his name as Constable.

JOSEPH HAVENS—416 (M5 p 240): son of Jonathan—313 & Hannah (Brown) Havens (p 8 ) born 1714 died May 31 1775 married 1) Mary Watts widow of John; she b 1690 (1693 — R13) d Aug 20 1768 — R13 (Aug 2 1768 — R16); he m 2) Nov 22 1769 Jemima Glover b 1744 d May 18 1772 ae 28 (R13); issue, second marriage:

Joseph—520 b May 18 1772 d Oct 13 1775
Cynthia—555

Joseph—416 signed the Association in Shelter Island in May 1775 and died that month ae 61, which proves his birth date (R8). His tombstone in the Presbyterian church cemetery, Shelter Island, gives his date plus that of his wife Jemima (d May 1772 ae 28). His will, Oct 12 1771 Southampton proved May 31 1775 (R10), mentions wife Jemima; a codicil Apr 29 1775 says his wife died giving birth to a son. A note in the record (R15) says the son Joseph grew to maturity and lived on Shelter Island near the ferry and that he had a son Joseph, who died unmarried, and a daughter Cynthia.

Joseph—416 was constable and collector for Shelter Island in 1737. Although he was an old-timer, he was the only Joseph in the area at the time, excepting possibly Joseph—401 son of George—312, who may have remained on Shelter Island, although his father died on Fisher's Island. If the office holder was Joseph—416, he could not have removed to Southampton until after 1769, for he had the responsibility in 1767 "to make out and levy the quit rents" for Shelter Island, and he was assessor in 1769.

He is listed in the Shelter Island census for 1771 as head of a household containing one male between 16 and 60, one under 16, and one female over 16. He was not listed in the 1776 census, for he died the year before it was taken.

WILLIAM HAVENS—417 (M6 p 240): son of Jonathan—313 & Hannah (Brown) Havens (p 8 ) born 1719 died May 4 1763 (R13, 23, 25) married Sarah Case b 1719 d Oct 8 1769 ae 50 (R13); issue:

James—521 (p 19 ) b Feb 12 1742 m Elizabeth Bowditch d Mar 15 1810.

Walter—522 (p 20 ) b ca 1743 d May 1 1806 m Lois Tuthill.

Samuel—523 (p 20 ) b ca 1745 m Mary Parker.

Peter—524 (p 21 ) b ca 1750 d Sep 3 1775 m Sally/Sarah ----.

Ezekiel—525 (p 21 ) b 1759 m 1) Mary Stratton 2) Jemima Case.

William—526 (p 21 ) b ca 1749 d May 7 1808.

Phebe—527 b 1749 d Oct 28 1752 bap Jul 11 1752-3 (R22).

Desire—528 b Jun 22 1749-50 Shelter Island (R14) m Capt. William Havens—535 (p 23 ), her second cousin, son William—424; she died Jun 22—Jul 4 1776 (R14) Nov 5 1771 (R1) ae 22 (R13) but one of those dates may have been for her husband's Aunt (R14).

Phebe—529 b Apr 22 1753 m Capt Joseph Havens—534 (p 22 ), her second cousin. Her death is recorded as Mar 17 1806, Shelter Island (R26).

The will of William—417 dated Sep 2 1761 proved June 2 1763 (Sep 10 — R15), mentions wife Sarah, eldest son James, sons Walter, Samuel, Peter, Ezekiel, daughters Desire and Phebe, youngest son William jr. (a minor), James and Nicoll Havens executors, and Jonathan, Thurston and Nicoll Havens witnesses. (R10).

The 1776 Suffolk Co. census shows William as head of a household containing one male over 50, two from 16 to 50, one under 16, one female over 16 and one under, Shelter Island. This checks with family statistics.

William served Shelter Island as overseer of the poor in 1742. There were three Williams there at that general period of time, and they all seem to have held office. This one was probably the first, and he served the board on and off from 1745 through 1753 as overseer of the poor and assessor.

HENRY HAVENS—423 (M p 163): son of John—315 & Sarah (Conklin) Havens (p 9 ) was born pr ca 1710 died after 1790, married Abigail Tuthill b Apr 7-9 1710 da Daniel & Mehitabel (Horton) Tuthill and sister of the Patience Tuthill who married Henry's brother John—426. The Osborne Shaw (R23) ms. lists the following children:

John Jr—530 (p 22 ) died 1786 married Rebecca Smith.

Sally—531 m Apr 6 1807 Elisha Howell at Westhampton (R14, 26); their da Sarah m Erastus Foster of Quogue; issue: Julia F., Sally H. (R23).

Evidently Henry—423 was one of the founders of the Town of Shelter Island (R1). He held town office there in 1733 (assessor), 1734 (collector & constable), 1741 (overseer of the poor), and several times later. But he must have removed to Brookhaven, for the Tuthill genealogy (R12) gives his residence as Moriches when he married Abigail. The 1776 census lists him there as head of a family with one male over 50, one from 16 to 50, one under 16, two females over 16 and two under. He is listed for the same township in the 1790 census: one male over 16, two under, and two females. He is missing from the 1800 census there, although a Henry is listed for Kings County.

Archibald S. Havens said (R23) that Henry—423 owned land in Southold and Brookhaven and that he built a dam and grist mill in the latter place. He sold the Southold land in 1775. He was called oldest son in his father's will.

WILLIAM HAVENS—424 (M2 p 163): son of John—315 and Sarah (Conklin) Havens (p 9 ) born pr ca 1708 on Shelter Island died Mar 26 1780 at Hog Neck, now North Haven (R14, 16); married prior to 1740 Ruth Falconer b 1720 d Feb 18 1759 ae 39 (R13, 14, 23); issue:

Ebenezer—532 (p 22 ) b ca 1740 d unmarried 1787.

Eunice—533 b pr 1742-3 (R14). No further record.

Joseph—534 (p 22 ) b 1745 d Oct 18 1827 m Phebe Havens.

William—535 (p 23 ) b 1747 m 1) Desire Havens 2) Bethiah Bowditch.

Daniel—536 (p 24 ) b ca 1745-50 d Feb 1783 m Hannah Nickerson.

Lydia—537 b ca 1750. No further record.

John—538 b ca 1754 (R14) drowned Oct 6 1789 ae 34 (R13), evidently unmarried. He is buried in the Shelter Island Presbyterian Church cemetery (R8)' Letters of administration granted Dec 26 1789 to James Havens, Shelter Island merchant, given as cousin — pr James—521, second cousin (R10).

Hannah—539 b Dec 10 1751 d Apr 7 1783 m ca 1768-9 Phineas Parker b May 10 1749 son of Abraham & Mary (Budd) Parker; their da Deborah (b Nov 5 1769 Sag Harbor d Feb 8 1864 bur Patchogue) m Daniel Tuthill (b ca 1769 Cutchogue) son of Samuel (b 1727) & Phebe (Davis) Tuthill; issue: Benjamin F., Spicer D., Sarah, Hannah, Phineas, child d young (R12).

William—424 was a Shelter Islander, the only one listed there in the 1776 census of that age. He was also listed in the 1771 census there as having three males in his family between 16 and 60, one under 16, one female over 16 and one under. The 1776 census gives him one male over 50, one from 16 to 50, one under, one female over 16 and one under. He signed the Association for Shelter Island in 1775, but he removed to Southampton, for he died at North Haven (R14).

All his sons given above were seafaring men — three of them, Joseph, William and Daniel, being captains, and three of them, William, Daniel and John, dying by drowning.

Mallman's record of Shelter Island town officers has William—424 as overseer of the poor in 1758, when he was designated William son of John. He held that post in 1749, 1760, and 1761, and he may have been the assessor elected in 1762, but by that time other Williams were in the picture. On Feb 14 1757 he conveyed land to Benjamin—427, and his wife Ruth signed the deed (R23). Mather says he was the Lt./Capt. William of Revolutionary War fame, but Mather erred; that William has been identified as this William's son, William—535 (R14).

He may have had another son, Benjamin—554 (p 28 ), for the late Judge Dwight C. Haven of Wilmington, N.C. said: "Now it is reported by the descendants of this Benjamin that he was a brother of the William Havens (—535) who Mallman states was a noted privateer."

JONATHAN HAVENS—425 (M p 163): son of John—315 & Sarah (Conklin) Havens (p 9 ) is something of a mystery. That he was the son of John—315 is unquestioned, for he was mentioned in his father's will, but that he married Patience Tuthill and raised the family Mallman attributes to him has just as definitely been disproved (R23).

He is not listed in any of the early censuses. He could not have died young, for his father's will was made in 1750 and, judging by his siblings' dates, he was born early in the century. He may have moved out of the state, or he may have never married, living in his father's household. The Salmon Records (R16) show a Jonathan as dying Oct 25 1799, and that could have been he. The will of a Jonathan Havens dated Mar 30 1771 proved May 25 1771 mentions wife Susannah and daughter Patience, with Nicoll Havens as executor and Obadiah Havens a witness. He could have been the one who held Shelter Island office.

The above birth order follows my own research and departs from that given by Mallman. Mallman says Benjamin—541 married Lucretia Payne, but the late Archibald Havens (R23) proved him wrong, and my own family research confirms that of Archibald. Mallman also lists this John as Jonathan, but all other records name him John, not Jonathan, including Mallman himself in his record of the Tuthill line (R23).

The 1776 Suffolk County census lists John—426 as head of a family consisting of one male over 50, one female over 16, and two under, in Brookhaven. His household at the time of the 1790 census had one male over 16 and one female, also in Brookhaven. As indicated above, although born on Shelter Island he died and was buried in Moriches (R8). His will, May 3-Mar 5 1783 (Liber B pp 24-25) proved Jan 2-22 1799 (R10, 23) mentions all his sons by name and only his daughter Charlotte by name; son John—542 was executor.

He was on the assessment roll of Brookhaven in 1749. Although his father, John—315, held town office on Shelter Island, John—426 did not, according to my analysis of Mallman's list of town office holders.

BENJAMIN HAVENS—427 (M4 p 164): son of John—315 & Sarah (Conklin) Havens (p 9 ) pr b ca 1700-1710 died ca 1797, married Jan 31 1754 (R14) Abigail Strong daughter of Thomas & Susannah (Thompson) Strong (R30) issue:

Selah Strong—548 (p 28 ) b Apr 20 1755 d Jan 29 1785 m Sarah Strong (R9).

Susannah—549 m Daniel Voorhees. She survived her father, for she is mentioned in his will. A church record (R22) says she m Apr 20 1774 Joshua Horton, but her father calls her Susannah Van Voorhees in his will. She had 2 ch. Benjamin & Phebe, who m ----Webster.

Charity—550 b ca 1766 d Jan 1 1774 ae 8. Her grave is next to that of her brother Selah in the Beach Fern Road burying ground, Center Moriches (R23, 31).

Ruth—551 a probable daughter b 1756 Brookhaven, married Aaron Higbie 1785. The late Archibald Havens (R23) quotes a letter by Ralph E. Price of Yonkers dated Oct 30 1899 saying that Price's great grandmother Ruth Havens was born in and married from Brookhaven — b 1756 m Aaron Higbie 1785; they had Major Benjamin Higbie of Babylon, Long Island, and later of Troy, N.Y. Said Archibald Havens: "I have heard both my father and Aunt Sarah Wickham say that we were related to the Higbie family of Babylon. Certainly Benjamin—427 had a daughter who married a Higbie, for his will mentions granddaughter Charity Higbie. Archibald Havens also said there was a great-grandson Ralph E. Price in Yonkers in 1899.

Henry—552 is mentioned in his father's will and therefore survived him.

Thomas—553 is also mentioned in his father's will and therefore survived him. He could be the Thomas who was a private in three different regiments in the New York State levies for the Revolutionary War (R35).

Benjamin—427 was a patriot of some repute at the time of the Revolutionary War, and he became a thorn in the side of the British. Under date of July 3 1779 Onderdonk's "Revolutionary Incidents of Suffolk & Kings Counties" says: "Last week a party of rebels had a feast at the home of Benjamin Havens of Moriches (a most pernicious caitiff)." Benjamin has been the subject of an article, "Benjamin Havens of Moriches," by Chester G. Osborne in Long Island Forum, July 1960.

He signed the Association in Brookhaven in 1775 and Apr 9 1776 was chosen a member of the Committee of Safety for Moriches. He was on the assessment roll of Brookhaven in 1749. He bought land from his brother William—424 in 1757 (R23). He took the 1776 Suffolk Co. census for the Manor of St. George and the Patentship of Moriches, listing himself as head of a household containing one male over 50, two between 16 and 50, two under 16, two females over 16 and one under. This makes a total of eight, of which we can account for seven if we assume all the children listed above were born by that time.

Jacqueline Overton's "History of Long Island" quotes a newspaper advertisement of Mar 5 1772: "A stage will run from Brooklyn to Sag Harbor once a week as follows: From Brooklyn Ferry to Samuel Nicholl's in Hempstead Plains, where the passengers will stay all night, fare four shillings. To Epentus Smith at Smithtown four shillings. To Benjamin Havens at St. George's Manor four shillings and stay all night. To Nathan Fordham's, Sag Harbor, six shillings. Thus passengers may be conveyed 120 miles in three days on a pleasant road for 10 shillings." From this it will be seen that he ran a tavern at St. George's Manor.

Benjamin's sister Phebe—428 married Nathaniel Jessup (R1) and their daughter Phebe married Daniel Fordham, son of Nathan and Abigail (Bowditch) Fordham (R1). This Nathan Fordham was one of those who ran the stage line described above with Benjamin Havens, so the two men were related by marriage. (Phebe & Daniel Fordham's son Thaddeus m another Havens — see p 9 ).

The Strong genealogy (R30) says that Abigail Strong married Benjamin Havens of Moriches, "a farmer at Bedford, N.Y. where he died," and this has always been construed to mean that he died at Bedford, Westchester Co., N.Y. However, in his will he identifies himself as Benjamin Havens "of the township of Bedford in Kings County," which was the community now known as Bedford-Stuyvesant in Brooklyn.

I am indebted to Chester G. Osborne of Moriches for the information that Benjamin—427 performed many services for Tangier Smith and William Floyd of that period, serving their interests in New York City and Brooklyn when his stage line took him there, and perhaps later when he moved to Brooklyn. He is also mentioned in "As Told by the Attic Letters," by Cornelia Floyd Nichols, 1952, as follows:

"From the 9th of October to the 1st of November the General keeps a horse with Benjamin Havens in Brooklyn. For five days the horse eats eight quarts of oats a day, the next few days four quarts, the next two weeks two quarts a day. This sounds like the famous experiment in teaching a horse to live on one straw a day; it suggests, however, that he only used the horse for travel to and from Mastic and not during his stay in town."

Another extract from the same publication: "... and Benjamin Havens communicates on the subject to grass, hay and oats in July. Side by side with David Titus and Benjamin Havens' signatures this comes to hand: 'Recd of William Floyd esq £50 10 sh being the amount of a note in hand with interest from May to John Carter alias John Church for £50 N.Y. currency dated in Philadelphia some time about the last of April in the year 1783 and which note has been mislaid in my hands.'"

Earlier members of my own family must have had Benjamin—427 in mind when they said they had relatives in Bedford, N.Y., for Benjamin—427 was the uncle of Benjamin—541, my ancestor. This relationship may have led to the naming of the youngest son of Benjamin—541: Selah—6103. Selah—6103 was born in 1787 and Selah—548, above, died in 1785. It would have been natural for Benjamin—541 to name his next-born son after that cousin Selah—548 who had but recently died.

He held office in Shelter Island. His father was active in town affairs but, after he died 1733-4, George—502 was the one who became overseer of the poor in 1754, 1756, town assessor 1759, constable & collector 1763, overseer of the poor 1765.

His will, Shelter Island Jul 4 1770, mentions wife Anne, sons Obadiah, John, George, daughter Keziah, son Jonathan, daughter Jemima; Capt. David Brown and cousin Nicoll Havens—505 executors; William Havens, yeoman, George Duvall, tanner, Robert Hempstead witnesses; proved Aug 27 1770 (R15).

He played an important role in the Shelter Island town government. He was assessor 1756, 1758 clerk 1759 — a post he held continuously until 1776, when there was a hiatus, presumably because of the war, but he resumed the position in 1780 and held it until 1783, the year of his death. Meanwhile he also served in other capacities: assessor 1762, 1764, fence viewer 1767, overseer of the poor 1769, and supervisor 1770, a position he held until 1776, serving as clerk at the same time. In 1880 he became clerk again, also in 1782, 1783, and in 1783 he became supervisor once more — the year he died. From then on his illustrious son, Jonathan Nicoll—6008, became a man of importance in town affairs.

The Shelter Island 1771 census gives him a household containing one male between 16 and 60, one under 16, one female over 16, and one under. The 1776 census lists one male from 16 to 50, one under 16, five females over 16 and four under, all Shelter Island.

His will, Shelter Island, Sep 20 1782 proved Jun 6 1784 (Lib 17 p 87) mentions wife Desire and children Jonathan Nicoll, Esther Sarah, Mary Catherine, Catherine Mary, Rensselaer, Gloriana, Frances, Watson and Henrietta (R10). His tombstone is in the Shelter Island church cemetery, and his wife Sarah is also buried there.

Salmon Records (R16) say a child of Nicoll Havens died Sep 28 1778.

CONSTANT HAVENS—513 (M12 p 241, R16, 32): son of Constant—415 & Abigail Havens (p 12 ) born 1734 died Sep 14 1797 married 1) Oct 13-15 1756 Bethiah Brown 2) Martha --- b 1744-5 d Feb 25 1774 3) Temperance Gordon (Gurdon); issue first wife:

But we cannot be sure the listing applies to him, for surrogate's records show a Constant Havens for whom letters of administration were issued Oct 10 1784 (R10) to creditors, who might have been the son of Constant—513; his occupation was given as cordwainer, and the will (?) was made in Southold.

Third Marriage

Gurdon Constant—6030 (p 31 ) b Jul 30 1792 d Feb 3 1870 m 1815 Mary Ann Wilson (R32).

He was a Southampton man. He signed the Association in May 1775 and was listed in the 1776 census for Southampton as having a family with one male between 16 and 50, five under 16, two females over 16, and two under. From this we can assume that some of the children had already married and left home. The 1790 census gives him two males over 16, two under and six females.

A muster roll of Capt. Paul Reeve's company of Southold minute men in 1776 lists a Constant Havens as a 45-year-old corporal who would have been this Constant. (R5).

His will, Aug 8 1797 Southampton (Liber A 504-6) proved Sep 14 1797 mentions wife Temperance, daughters Abigail Jennings, Lucretia, Peggy, Jerusha, Hannah, Polly, Nancy, plus sons

Constant, Jeremiah, Biram, David, Gordon. His wife Temperance was executrix and son Biram, executor (R10, 15). He and Martha, second wife, are buried in a Havens cemetery in Southampton (R38).

DR. JONATHAN HAVENS—516 (M15 p 242): son of Constant—415 & Abigail Havens (p 12 ), born 1738 died Apr 22-26 1801 Sag Harbor (R43), married Abigail Tiley/Tyler issue:

Mather calls him Dr. Jonathan, a surgeon in the hospital service, who fled from Sag Harbor to East Haddam in 1776. Craven (R5) cites a memorial presented to the Connecticut legislature in May 1778 by Jonathan Havens, Benjamin Conklin and others, complaining of the illegal seizure of their property. He is listed in the 1771 Shelter Island census as having one male between 16 and 60, one under 16, one female over 16, and one under in his family. He was listed in the 1776 census for Southampton as head of a family consisting of one male between 16 and 50, five under 16, one female over 16 and two under. He signed the Association in 1775, Suffolk County. The 1790 census shows him with six males over 16 one under and five females, Southampton.

He may have held town office; it is likely, but it is difficult to distinguish between the Jonathans listed by Mallman for this service. The list starts in 1736, before this Jonathan was born, so the earlier offices probably were held by his uncle, Jonathan—414 (p 11 ), but the dates run to the 1770's, by which time Dr. Jonathan would have been old enough to qualify.

CAPTAIN JAMES HAVENS—521 (M17 p 242): son of William—417 & Sarah (Case) Havens (p 13 ) born Feb 12 1742 died Mar 15 1810 ae 69 (R1, 2, 8) married Apr 1761 (R33) Elizabeth Bowditch of Shelter Island da Joel & Bethiah (Case) Bowditch, she b Nov 12 1742 d Mar 15 1828 ae 84 (R8); issue:

Sarah—6050 b Feb 23 1786 d Aug 21/23 1790 ae 5 (R13).

All the children were baptized Oct 13 1786 (R14).

Captain James—521 was a Shelter Islander (R2, 11). Mather makes him one of the refugees who fled up the Connecticut River in 1776, saying "after his return to Long Island he was probably a captain in the Suffolk Co. militia, as a statement of his death gives him that title."

He signed the Association on Shelter Island in 1775. The 1771 census there lists him as head of a household containing two males between 16 and 60, five under 16, one female over 16, and one under. The 1776 census has his household containing two males between 16 and 50, four under 16, one female over 16 and three under, Shelter Island. In the 1790 census, Shelter Island, he had three males over 16, one under, and four females. He was an executor of the will of his cousin Ebenezer—532 on Shelter Island in 1787.

He is buried in the Shelter Island Presbyterian Church cemetery (R8). His will (Liber E 135-6) Shelter Island Dec 14 1809 proved Sep 9 1825 mentions wife Elizabeth, daughters Frances Davis, Julia Gardiner, (dec), Elizabeth Thompson, Lucretia Havens, sons Francis, Gordon, David and Henry P. His wife Elizabeth's tombstone is in the same cemetery: March 1828 ae 84 (R8).

He was a delegate to the first Provincial Congress (R2) on May 5 1775. He was active in town affairs: assessor for three years beginning in 1765, again in 1770, overseer of the poor and fence viewer the following year. He was overseer of the poor until 1774, when he became assessor again. After the war period he was assessor starting in 1778 and continuing more or less through 1783, when he became supervisor for two years. When Jonathan Nicoll became supervisor, Captain James resumed his duties as assessor, holding the post more or less continuously until 1796, when he became poundmaster, a position he held through 1798, taking it again in 1800 for one term.

Most records say he was the first resident of Heartsease, the old Havens house still standing (1974) on Shelter Island and currently owned by the Shelter Island Historical Society, which uses it as its headquarters. A descendant, Charles E. Havens of Ft. Myers, Florida, says it was built in 1743 (R37), but if so it must have been built by Capt. James' father, William—417, for Captain James was born in 1742.

WALTER HAVENS—522 (M18 p 242; R2, 12, 26): son of William—417 & Sarah (Case) Havens (p 13), born ca 1743 (based on sibling dates) died May 1 1806, married Lois Tuthill of Rocky Point b ca 1759 d Sep 1813 da Azariah Tuthill (1724); issue:

William—6051 m Sarah Frances Havens—7040 (p 33 ), his second cousin.

Hannah—6052 probably died unmarried Nov 1815.

Remington—6053 (p 33 ) m Jan 13 1803 Jemima Tuthill; d Sep 16 1815.

Mather says he was a ship captain from Shelter Island, and the censuses put him there. The Shelter Island 1771 census gives him one male between 16 and 60, one under 16, one female over 16, and two under. In 1776 it was one male between 16 and 50, two under 16, one female over 16, and two under. In 1790 there was one male over 16, two under, and one female.

He was collector and constable for the town in 1777, fence viewer in 1781 through 1784, and again in 1786, 1794, 1795, 1796, 1798.

He died intestate (Liber E), a Shelter Island farmer. Letters of administration were issued to his son in 1814, Remington—6053; nephews Obadiah and Lodowick were witnesses (R10).

SAMUEL HAVENS—523 (M19 p 242): son of William—417 & Sarah (Case) Havens (p 13 ), born ca 1745 (based on sibling dates) died ca 1803, married Mary Parker da Abraham & Mary (Budd) Parker; issue:

Susan/Sarah—6054 bp Jul 6 1772 (R1, 14, 22).

Lodowick—6055 (p 34 ) b Jan 17 1774 d Nov 11 1854 m Mary Annabel.

Lucinda—6056 bp Jul 19 1782 (R14, 22) m Jun 11 1808 William C. Congdon; she d Sep 12 1840.

Nancy—6057 b ca 1778 d Oct 1 1804, is not listed by Mallman, but the Suffolk Gazette reported her death (R26).

Samuel, another Shelter Islander, was not listed in the earlier census for some reason not yet determined, but the 1790 census gives him a family of two males over 16, one under, and three females. He served as constable & collector for the town in 1776, fence viewer in 1784, collector & constable in 1786, 1787 and 1788, and fence viewer off and on from 1781 to 1798.

He died intestate a Shelter Island farmer; letters of administration were issued in 1803 to his son Lodowick, with Ezekiel Havens bondsman – probably his brother (R10). Probate records call him a Shelter Island farmer.

PETER HAVENS—524 (M p 240): son of William—417 & Sarah (Case) Havens (p 13 ) born ca 1750 (based on sibling dates), died Sep 3 1775, married Sally/Sarah ----.

We know very little about him. He signed the Association in May 1775 on Shelter Island (R7), but he wasn't listed in any census, which is not surprising if he died on the date given above. It has been suggested that he may have been the Peter who married Rebecca Smith (R17) m Jul 31 1759, but his birth date rules that out. It is more likely that he was the Peter Havens, carpenter, of Shelter Island for whom letters of administration were issued in 1803 (1833?) to the widow, Sarah, the estate including half a sloop (R10). The bondsman was Ezekiel Havens, and Peter—524 had a brother Ezekiel, next below.

EZEKIEL HAVENS—525 (M20 p 243): son of William—417 & Sarah (Case) Havens (p 13 ), born 1759 died Nov 29 1821, married 1) Mary Stratton b 1763 d Jun 30 1792 ae 30 (R13); m 2) Mar 1793 Jemima Case; issue first marriage:

Jemima—6058

Stratton—6059 (p 34 ) d 1812 m Feb 26 1808-9 Abigail F. Hamilton.

Sara Phina—6060 b Mar 1 1789 m Oct 26/29 1807 Robert Harlow, son Robert & Phebe (Brown) Harlow (R26); she d Jul 1850.

Philena—6061 b Mar 1 1789 d Sep 18 1810 (R1, 26) m Shelter Island Aug 27 1806 Abraham Mulford of Southold (R26).

Like his siblings, Ezekiel was a Shelter Islander. He was not listed in the early census there, probably because he was not yet married but still living with his parents. But the 1790 census showed him with a household containing one male over 16, two under, and three females.

He was active in town affairs. He was on the board in 1785 as collector and constable, also fence viewer that year, holding the position through 1788. He was overseer of the poor in 1787, collector & constable and assessor in 1789, and he held various of these posts until 1805.

The Jemima Havens who was baptized as an adult in the Southold Presbyterian Church on Jun 30 1784 (R22) may have been his second wife.

WILLIAM HAVENS—526 (M21 p 243). son of William—417 & Sarah (Case) Havens (p 13 ), born ca 1759 (he was a minor in 1761 when his father made his will) died May 7, 1808 (R14), married but wife unknown; issue:

William—6062 b ca 1786 (based on sibling dates); he was drowned.

Catherine—6063 b 1787 m 1) John M. Isaacs 2) Jul 20 1842 William Davenport; she d Jul 31 1862.

Ezekiel—6064 (p 34 ) b ca 1789 d 1812 m Roxanna Case.

Sarah—6065 b ca 1790 m Jan 17 1811 Sayre House.

Eunice Maria—6066 b Dec 25 1791 m Dec 23 1810 Samuel Stratton Dayton; she d Jan 7 1872.

In the will of William—417, father of this William (R15), William—526 was listed as a minor when the will was drawn. It was that information that led me to estimate the above birth date. From that base we can further speculate that he could have married ca 1762 and had the above children before 1776, but what dates we do have show they were born after that time. So it is likely he was not yet married and head of a household at the time of the 1776 census. As a consequence, I think the 1776 census figures given by Mather for this William should apply, rather, to his father William—417, and this belief is supported by the fact that neither of the census figures for the two Williams on Shelter Island agrees with the above family statistics.

He signed the Association in 1775 in Shelter Island. Mather says he went from Shelter Island to Saybrook, and in this he could well be right; he adds that William was in Saybrook in 1777.

I had for a time considered that this William was the one who held many town posts from 1761 on, but if he was a minor in that year it is open to question.

JOHN HAVENS JR—530 (R1, 6, 23): son of Henry—423 & Abigail (Tuthill) Havens (p 13 ), died 1796, married Rebecca Smith, daughter of Joseph and Catherine (Havens) Smith (R11) of Huntington, in West Moriches; issue:

Rebecca—6071

Abigail—6072

John—530 signed the Association in 1775 in Brookhaven (R7). The 1776 census gives him one male from 16 to 50, two under 16, one female over 16 and four under, in Brookhaven. He died intestate, a Brookhaven farmer and letters of administration were granted Nov 28 1798 to son-in-law Samuel Smith of Smithtown, sons Daniel & Peter, bondsmen (R10, 23).

EBENEZER HAVENS—532 (M p 164): son of William—424 & Ruth (Falconer) Havens (p 14 ), born ca 1740 (R14), died 1787 unmarried.

He signed the Association on Shelter Island in 1775 (R7), and he seems to have been the last of the John—315 clan to hold town office there. He was elected overseer of the poor there in 1780 and held the post two years.

His will, Shelter Island May 5 1787 (Liber A 27-29), proved Dec 27-29 1787 (R10, 14), mentions sister Hannah Parker, her daughter Deborah, brother Joseph; Joseph's son Augustus—6073; James Havens a witness (R10).

CAPT. JOSEPH HAVENS—534 (M p 164, M22 p 243, R1, 2, 14): son of William—424 & Ruth (Falconer) Havens (p 14 ), born 1745 died Oct 18 1827, married 1767-8 Phebe Havens—529 (p 13 ), his second cousin; issue:

Charles Alfred—6080 b Jun 21 1795 d Jul 2 1808 of lockjaw, Shelter Island (R14).

Mather calls him Captain Joseph, commanding a ship that transported refugees, saying he was from Sag Harbor, according to the 1776 census for Southampton, adding that W. S. Pelletreau said he was from Shelter Island. "If he served in the army he was in the 1st and 3d of the Line and in Connecticut." He was, as Mather suggested, a private in the 1st and 3d Line regiments (R35). He received a land grant in 1790 as compensation for his military service (R34).

He signed the Association in 1775. The 1776 census gives him one male from 16 to 50, three under 16, one female under 16, in Southampton. The 1790 census lists three males over 16, four under, and two females on Shelter Island. He was an executor of the will of his brother Ebenezer—532 in 1787.

He must have moved from Southampton to Shelter Island. He may have held town office there; the records list a Joseph who was constable & collector in 1737, but that probably was Joseph—416 (p 12). However, a Joseph was asked in 1767 to make out and levy the quit rents there, and he served as assessor in 1769; this could have been Joseph—534.

His will, Shelter Island Mar 14 1826 proved Dec 1 1827 (Liber E 319—320), mentions daughter Cynthia, granddaughters Phebe and Elizabeth, sons Augustus, Nathaniel and Joseph C as executor (R10).

Mallman says William—535 was "a noted captain of various privateers during the Revolution." He was not able to establish his parentage, but this was done by Louis T. Vail of White Plains, N.Y. (R14), to whom I am indebted for much of my information. Mr. Vail compiled a comprehensive record of Capt. William's military service and privateering, which can be found in the N.Y. Gen. & Biog. Record for January, 1947.

Caulkins, in his History of New London, Conn. (R47), names William as one of several seamen whose bravery and skill were unsurpassed in their harassing of an enemy or defense of a coast. He describes some of the captain's exploits during the Revolutionary War while in command of the sloop "Beaver."

William is identified by Mather (R2) as captain and lieutenant, saying: "At Southampton Jan 21 1794 he made affidavit that he was the only surviving officer of Capt. Davis' company, 4th Line."

Mather adds that William served in the 2d and 3d Line regiments and was captain of the armed ship "Beaver." He resigned from the 4th Line Nov 14 1777. He served in Connecticut. A Lt. William Havens, undoubtedly the same man, is shown in the records as having served in the 3d and 4th Line and as a private in the 2d Line (R35), and a William Havens was granted land as a veteran in 1790 (R34).

He signed the Association in Shelter Island (R7), as did his father in 1775. It is not difficult to interpret the census record for 1776, for the William given for Southampton is called Lieutenant William. As I analyze the census figures, this William had one male between 16 and 50, one under 16, one female over 16, and one under in his family. He must have moved from Shelter Island to Southampton, for no William is listed for Shelter Island in the 1790 census, and a Captain William is listed for Southampton with one male over 18, one under, and two females. He may have been one of the Williams who held town office on Shelter Island, but the situation is complicated by the fact that there were other Williams there then.

Capt. William's first wife, Desire Havens—528, was a sister of Phebe Havens—529 who married Capt. Joseph—534, brother of Capt. William. His second wife, Bethiah Bowditch, is reported by Mallman to have married again after his death, her second husband being Phineas Parker, son of Abraham and Mary (Budd) Parker. But her tombstone inscription refers to her as "Bethiah, wife of Capt. William Havens."

Capt. William perished in a shipwreck off Cape Cod in November 1798, a fate similar to that of his brother Daniel—536, who was lost at sea some years before. Knowing that the brig "Lucy" of Sag Harbor had been lost off Cape Cod in 1798, Mr. Vail searched the files of Frothingham's Long Island Herald and found the following in the issue of Dec 3 1798:

"On the 21st of November last the brig 'Lucy' of this port (Sag Harbor), James Terry master, belonging to Col. Benjamin Hunting from Machias, Maine, laden with lumber on her homeward bound passage, was cast ashore on Cape Cod and entirely lost, and melancholy to add, Capt. William Havens, pilot, Jeremiah Rogers, mate, and a black man all perished in attempting to gain the shore. Capt. William Havens was an inhabitant of this place. In nautical knowledge very few excelled him. During the last Revolution he distinguished himself as a real Boanerges in the cause of freedom; he ever felt ready to fall or rise with the ruin or happiness of his country. But alas, the cause of liberty is not always the channel of preferment and reward, and he was possessed of too great an enlargement of heart ever to mourn his own misery or fortunes. As he lived generally esteemed, to his death is universally lamented." (R14).

The Suffolk Gazette (R14) of Oct 19 1807 records the marriage of James Havens of Shelter Island to Esther Nickerson of Sag Harbor. The identity of this James is not yet established, but he could have been one of the unnamed sons of Captain William.

CAPT. DANIEL HAVENS—536 (M p 164; R1, 2, 14, 23, 42): son of William—424 & Ruth (Falconer) Havens (p     ), born ca 1748-9, died Feb 1783, married pr ca 1775-8 Hannah Nickerson of Chatham, Mass., b 1755 d Nov 26 1799 in her 44th year at Hog Island. (She m 2) Capt. Sam Ryder.) Issue:

William—6091 b ca 1776 (M-1).

Jonathan—6092 b ca 1776 (M1).

Rensselaer—6093 b pr 1778.

Vincent—6094 b pr ca 1780

Daniel William Jr—6095 (p 36 ) b May 1 1783 m Desire Howes.

Edwin Havens of Arleta, Cal., writes: "I am descended from Capt. Daniel Havens Sr. who was lost off Montauk, Christmas 1782. . . . He married at Chatham, Mass. apparently Hannah Nickerson. She was born in Chatham 1756 died Sag Harbor 1800 after remarrying to Capt. Sam Ryder. . . . The son Daniel Jr. was a captain in the India tea trade, sailing out of Norwich, Conn. He later became captain of the steamer 'Oliver Ellsworth' operating between Hartford and New York. That Captain Daniel Havens was my great-great-grandfather. His son, another Daniel William Havens, was rector of the Old Stone Church in East Haven, Conn. Captain Daniel W. Havens Jr. was born May 1 1783 five months after his father was lost at sea." Mr. Havens says Captain Daniel was believed by his family to have been about 32 when he died.

The late Archibald Havens (R23) said: "Miss Patia H. L'Hommedieu of Port Washington, Long Island, in a letter 10 August 1930 gives the record of her great-great-grandfather Daniel Havens b 1745-50 d 1783 m Hannah Nickerson who was born 1755 died 1799 of Chatham, Mass., lived at Sag Harbor. He is probably the Captain Daniel Havens given in Mather's 'Refugees'."

Mather (R2) says: "It is possible that he served in the 3d Line (G.46) and in Conn. (G.91). He fitted out the brig 'America' and made a very successful whaling voyage." Caulkins' History of New London, Conn. (R47) says that Daniel fitted out his brig "America" in 1785, took her to the Brazil Banks, and returned with a harvest of 300 barrels of whale oil. Mather also says he was captain of the ship "Beaver," but that vessel seems to have been under the command of his brother Capt. William—535 (R14). Roberts' "New York in the Revolution" gives Daniel as a private in the third Line regiment. (R35).

Mallman says Daniel—536 had two sons in 1776, and the Sag Harbor census of 1776 lists Daniel as head of a family containing one male between 16 and 50, two under 16, and one female over 16. These figures seem to corroborate Mallman's conclusion.

He died intestate, and letters of administration were issued in 1789 for Daniel, mariner, Southampton, to widow Elizabeth, which is at odds with the Hannah Nickerson information (R10). Archibald Havens (R23) said Hannah Nickerson's gravestone was still standing "in the little cemetery near the house of Dr. Johnson on the road to Hog Neck — Shelter Island ferry." The N. Y. Gen. & Biog. Record (R14) confirms Hannah Nickerson as Daniel's wife, plus others of the above data.

Selah—6103 (p 37 ) died unmarried born pr ca 1790.

He left Long Island probably before 1776 (he is not listed in the 1776 Suffolk County census) and moved to Orange County, N.Y. It was the period when the lure of the frontier was exercising its greatest attraction. He probably brought his wife with him, for their marriage is listed in the Salmon Records, but whether any of their children were born when they came is not yet known; they were married in 1769 and David, their second child, was born in 1777. He is listed on the assessment roll for the precinct of Goshen, Orange County, ca 1779, he signed a promissory note to his father John—426 dated 1780 in Orange County, and he was mentioned first in his father's will. The 1790 census gives him a family in New Windsor having two males over 16, three under, and four females, which corresponds exactly with the family record above.

He was my great-great-great grandfather, via his son David—6098, and I would be delighted to hear from any descendants of the other children. Most of the above information is derived from family records, but the marriage date and the identity of his parents were obtained through research of the Salmon Records and the wills of Benjamin's father and brother Nathaniel: the latter left a bequest to his "brother Benjamin's youngest son Selah."

Some members of the early Orange County Havens family evidently visited their relatives on Long Island, for the late A.S. Havens of Center Moriches (R23) said in a letter to the late Judge Dwight Haven: "I once heard my father say that when a little boy two cousins of his father from 'up the river' visited them. I do not remember that he mentioned their names, but he had in mind that they were in some way connected with the old West Point song of Benny Havens." My great-great-great grandfather Benjamin—541 (who moved from Suffolk County to Orange County) had a son Benjamin—6102 who became the patron saint of West Point.

The parentage of Abigail Moore, Benjamin's wife, has not yet (1974) been established, but I believe it to be highly probable that she was a sister of the John Moore of Rocky Point, Suffolk Co., who married Mehitabel—540, Benjamin's sister. (John Moore—4, 3, Nathaniel—2, Thomas—1 — R2, 3, 21.) There may be significance in the fact that another of Benjamin's sisters, Bethia—543, married Daniel Rackett of Rocky Point.

Selah—548, son of Benjamin—427 and cousin of Benjamin—541, died in 1785, a circumstance which may have led Benjamin—541 to name his youngest son Selah — born shortly after the other Selah died.

CAPT. A number of vital records exist on this family, and they are all in substantial agreement; variations are indicated above. They include a Strong family Bible, a Havens family Bible, and a Wickham Bible. He was the second child mentioned in his father's will.

A newspaper record of burials in the old Beach Fern Avenue burying ground, Center Moriches (R31) lists the following: Captain John Havens d Jun 18 1809 ae 61; Mrs. Abigail Havens, relict of Captain John, Nov 9 1801 in her 56th year; Mary da John & Abigail Dec 1 1812 ae 42; Sarah da John & Abigail Jun 6 1782; Abigail da John & Abigail May 3 (year missing) ae 12 days; Capt Nathan, oldest son of Capt John, Feb 27 1797 in his 25th year.

He was a Moriches man; he signed the Association there in 1775. He was listed in the 1776 census for Brookhaven as having one male from 16 to 50, two under 16, one female over 16 and one under in his family. The 1790 census gave him three males over 16, two under, and three females.

He was quite active in the Revolution (R25). He was commissioned ensign by Governor DeLancy and captain by Governor Cheston. He served as a private in the 1st Line regiment (R35). He became known as Captain John to distinguish him from his cousin John Jr—530 (R23).

His will, Moriches May 11 1809 probated Jun 24 1809 (Liber C 14-16), mentions wife Hannah, sons Jeremiah, Charles, John, daughters Polly, Sally, Charity; his brother Jerusha was a witness (R10). His death was listed in the Suffolk Gazette Jun 24 1809 ae 61 "at Moriches" (R26).

NATHANIEL HAVENS—544 (M p 164): son of John—426 & Patience (Tuthill) Havens (p 15), born ca 1755 (estimated from wife's birth date), died Feb 25, 1809 at Moriches, married Sep 1778 (R16) Pamela --- b 1759 (est from d. record) d Feb 1 1809 ae 50 (R8, 14, 23) Probably no issue (R1).

He was listed third in his father's will. He is not found in the 1776 Suffolk Co. census; he didn't marry until 1778 and presumably lived with his parents until then. He was, however, listed in the 1790 census, which gives him a man and woman both over 16, living in Southold.

Evidently he moved to Southold from Brookhaven, for he signed the Association in Brookhaven in 1775 and lived in Moriches (R7, 23). He must have gone from there to Brookhaven again, for his will of Dec 14 1805 proved Feb 1 1809 (R10, 15, 23) is dated Moriches. In it he mentions wife Pamela, Selah the youngest son of his brother Benjamin—541. In considering these switches in location, we remember that he must have been living with his parents in Brookhaven when he signed the Association, and his removal to Southold came after his marriage. When his father died in 1797 he inherited land, and he may have moved back to Brookhaven for that reason.

Osborn Shaw (R23) said he lived in Center Moriches. The Southold residence is given by the 1790 census, and the data given for his household there coincide with that of his family — and he was the only Nathaniel listed for that place. It is curious that his brother Jeremiah—545, who lived and died in Brookhaven (see following entry), was also listed in the 1790 census for Southold, and he is listed in the church records there (R5). They were the only Havenses in Southold at that time.

He is buried in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Center Moriches, and his wife is buried beside him. His brother Jeremiah—545 and wife Mehitable are also buried there (R8).

JEREMIAH HAVENS—545 (M10 p 165; R2, 5, 8, 14, 23): son of John—426 & Patience (Tuthill) Havens (p 15), born ca 1757 died Aug 1820 ae 63, married 1) Dec 19 1780 Mehitable Brown b, Mar 31 1760 d Sep 10 1807 ae 47; m 2) Bethiah Conklin (R23). Issue first marriage:

Maria S—6120 b Jan 9 1810 d Mar 1 1893 m May 10 1836 Nathaniel N. Munsell of Middle Island, son Nathaniel & Dolly (Smith) Munsell.

He is buried in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Center Moriches, with his wife Mehitable, and their birth dates can be computed from the cemetery records (R8). He died intestate, and letters of administration were granted in Brookhaven to his wife Mary (sic!) with sons Daniel and John (Liber E). He was baptized Mar 7 1793 as an adult, with five of his children (R5).

The late Osborn Shaw (R23) gave the second wife as Bethiah Conklin and the first, as Mehitabel Conklin, with the birth date of Daniel—6117 as 1787 and the death date of Jerusha—6118 as Apr 13.

Although the Havens and Shaw mss (R23) refer only to Jeremiah's activities in Moriches and Aquebogue, and not to Southold, Aquebogue is in Riverhead township near Southold township, and Riverhead was part of Southold until 1792. Craven (R5) lists him as "of Moriches." He was included for Southold in the 1790 census (one male over 16, two under, three females), but not for that of 1776; he did not marry until 1780 and thus was not head of a household before then.

Mrs. R. S. Andrews of Hillsborough, Cal., is searching for the parents of an ancestor Jonathan Havens who was born in Southold in 1784 and moved to North Carolina when not quite 20, where he married Sally Martin Smith. They lived and died in Washington, N.C., and are buried in the local churchyard; he died in 1828. At first thought, it would seem that her Jonathan could have been the third child of Jeremiah—545, his birth fitting nicely in the five-year gap between the births of Joseph and Mehitabel. But he would have been six at the time of the 1790 census, and presumably still living with his parents, yet the 1790 census accounts for only two young sons.

SELAH STRONG HAVENS—548 (M p 164; R9, 11, 15, 23, 29, 30): son of Benjamin—427 & Abigail (Strong) Havens (p 15 ), born Apr 20 1755 died Jan 29 1785, married Jan 29 1781 Sarah Strong b Sep 29 1753 d Nov 13 1810 da Selah Jr & Hannah (Woodhull) Strong; no issue. (The Smith genealogy — R11 — says Selah m Sarah da Nathaniel & Sarah (Smith) Woodhull, but my data preceding were taken from the Strong genealogy.)

Osborn Shaw (R23) said that after Selah's death, Sarah married Rev David "Priest" Rose of the South Haven Presbyterian Church.

Like his father, and usually in association with him, Selah was an active patriot during the war. He signed the Association May 1775, served in Captain Selah Strong's company, Joseph Smith's regiment. Captain Strong was his father-in-law (R23). He is buried in the old Beach Fern Avenue Cemetery, Center Moriches (R31). I note for the record that information I copied in the N.Y. State Library from "D.A.R. Graves" (R8) gives me an incorrect date for Selah's death — Aug 1796 — which probably resulted from an error in copying either by me or the D.A.R. After his death, letters of administration were issued to his father Benjamin—427 Mar 22 1786 (R10), in which he is called yeoman, St. George's Manor.

BENJAMIN HAVENS—554: born ca 1760 died Aug 23 1823 ae 63, married 1) Lucretia Payne b 1760 d Jun 22 1792 ae 32 da John & Phebe Payne; m 2) Penniah Buell/Buehl.

Mallman recorded that Benjamin—541 (p 25 ) son of John—426 & Patience (Tuthill) Havens married Lucretia Payne, but Mallman erred, as I have noted on page 26, for Benjamin—541, my ancestor, married Abigail Moore. The circumstances have been covered in my article "The Archibald Havens Papers," (R23).

There definitely was, however, another Benjamin Havens, and he did marry Lucretia Payne, as given above. He was listed in the 1790 census as head of a family on Shelter Island containing one male over 16 and two females. And a Benjamin Havens with identical family statistics is also listed in that census for Cambridge, Albany County. I believe them to be the same person. I am informed that the 1790 census took nearly a year to complete, and if, as I believe, the Benjamin in question moved from Shelter Island to Albany County during 1790, it is entirely possible he was recorded for the census twice.

His parentage, however, has not been established. There are a number of possibilities of varying likelihood, which I shall outline:

1. The late Judge Dwight C. Haven, a genealogist of Wilmington, N.C. specializing in Haven/Havens families, reported that this Benjamin, his wife Lucretia, and their daughter Nancy were in Cambridge, now part of Washington County, N.Y., that Benjamin, after Lucretia's death, married Penniah Buell/Buehl and moved to LeRoy, Genesee County, N.Y. where he died, leaving seven children, and that his wife Lucretia's tombstone is in the Payne cemetery, North Haven, Sag Harbor, reading: "Lucretia, wife of Benjamin Havens, ae 32, 1793." Mr. Haven further stated that it had been reported to him by descendants that Benjamin-554 was a brother of William-535 (p 23). That would make him a son of William-424 (p 14), which is entirely possible although Mallman's record of the children lists no Benjamin. In support of that theory is the fact that William-424 died at Hog Neck and the Payne family were of Sag Harbor.

2. Benjamin-554 could be a grandson of Jonathan-313 (p 8), who sired most of the Shelter Island Havens families. It is entirely possible that all his grandsons did not get into the records.

3. Another possibility is that Benjamin was a son of Henry-423 (p 13), one of the founders of the town of Shelter Island, and for whom census records show more sons than are given by Mallman.

4. Still another parent could be Benjamin-427 (p 15), whose children were much more numerous than Mallman's record indicates. Although I found additional children mentioned in the will of Benjamin-427, there is no reason to conclude that all his children were given there. Benjamin-554's birth date of 1760 would fit nicely into the period when Benjamin-427 was having children.

On the authority of the information supplied by Judge Haven, cited above, we can list the following issue of Benjamin-554 and either or both of his wives:

SIXTH GENERATION

OBADIAH HAVENS-6001 (M23 p 243): son of George-502 & Patience (Booth) Havens (p 17), born 1747 bp Jan 19-21 1755 died Aug 22 1786-7 (R13, 14, 22), married ca 1769-70 Phebe (?) Havens b 1750-1 d Jun 15 1830; she m 2) May 8 1800 Capt. Stephen Howell of Sag Harbor (R14); issue:

Clarissa-7002 b Jul 4 1773 m Jan 26 1796 Thadeus Fordham.

Elmira-7003 b Mar 17 1775 d unm Feb 27 1799 ae 23 (R13).

George H-7006 (p 40) b Nov 5 1786 d May 29 1858 m Sarah Haynes.

Church records (R22) say that all the children except George-7006 were baptized Oct 18 1786, two months after their father died and shortly before George was born - "children of widow Phebe Havens of Shelter Island."

Obadiah was listed in the Shelter Island census of 1771 for one male between 16 and 60, one under 16, three females over 16, and one under. In the 1776 census for that place he had four males over 16, three females over 16, and three under. As he died in 1786, he was not listed in the 1790 census, but his widow was: two males under 16 and five females, all on Shelter Island.

He signed the Association for Shelter Island in 1775 (R7). He held many town offices - fence viewer in 1774, overseer of the poor in 1776, 1778, 1779, 1781, fence viewer again in 1782, and overseer of the poor again 1784-5.

He died intestate: Feb 7 1787 Obadiah, yeoman, widow Phebe administratrix (R10). His tombstone is in the Shelter Island Presbyterian Church cemetery: August 1787 ae 40; also his widow's stone: June 1830 ae 80.

GEORGE HAVENS—6004 (M p 240): son of George—502 & Patience (Booth) Havens (p 17 ), born ca 1752 (based on sibling dates), bap Dec 1753 (R22) d before 1790, married Nov 22 1781 Lucretia Denison; no record of issue.

Mather says he was probably from Sag Harbor. He was, however, listed in the Shelter Island 1771 census for one male between 16 and 60, one female over 16, and one under 16. The 1776 census gives him one male over 50, two over 16, one under, two females over 16, one under, putting him in Southampton. He evidently died before 1790, for he is not listed in that census.

JOHN HAVENS—6005 (M p 240): son of George—502 & Patience (Booth) Havens (p 17 ), born 1755 died Oct 6 1769 (M1), but the records (R8, 13, 16), say he drowned Oct 6 1789, ae 34, together with Samuel Stratton and Sidney Havens—6046 (p 33 ).

We have almost no information on him. There is, however, definite confusion with John—538 (p 14 ), b about the same time (R14).

Archibald Havens (R23) said this John was probably from Shelter Island.

JONATHAN HAVENS—6006 (M24 p 243): son of George—502 & Patience (Booth) Havens (p 17 ), born ca 1755 (based on sibling dates), baptized Jan 19 1755 (R14) died May 2 1771, married Susannah Horton; issue:

Silas—7172 (p 40 ) m Proculah ----: d after 1750.

Patience—7173 d after 1750

The Salmon Records (R16) list Joshua Horton as having married "Suaner" Havens Apr 20 1775. I have had difficulty in identifying this woman, and she could have been the widow of this Jonathan for he predeceased her. If this is true, the Sarah Havens given as the niece of Jemima (Havens) Hudson by Craven (R5) could have been the daughter of Jonathan and Susannah above. His will, Shelter Island Mar 30 1771 proved May 25 1771: wife Susannah, son Silas, daughter Patience, both under age. (R10).

JONATHAN NICOLL HAVENS—6008 (M p 241 R13, 44): son of Nicoll—505 & Sarah (Fosdick) Havens (p 17 ), born Jan 13-18 (Jun 18) 1757 died Oct 20-25 1799 ae 42, unmarried.

He was a very civic-minded citizen, not only of his town but also the state and nation, subject of an extensive tribute by Mallman. Although he never married, he was very active in public affairs and politics. He first served as clerk of the Shelter Island town board, in 1783; he was elected supervisor in 1787, holding the post and other offices until 1792. In 1786 he was elected to the N.Y. state assembly from Suffolk County, serving until 1795. In 1788 he was a member of the state convention for the ratification of the U.S. constitution. He was a state justice of the peace in 1795. He was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1797, serving until 1799, year of his death.

He signed the Association in Shelter Island in 1775 (R7). He was listed in the 1790 census there as head of a family containing two males over 16 and two females.

He died intestate, and letters were issued to his sister Sarah Dering, wife of Sylvester; Mary Havens a bondswoman (R10). He is buried in the Shelter Island Presbyterian Church cemetery: November 1799 ae 42 (R8).

Munsell says he was noted as a statesman and philosopher (R19).

He is, however, found in the 1790 census for Southampton: one male over 16, one under, and three females, confirmed by above statistics. He is also listed there in 1790; one each males over 45, between 10 & 16 & under 10, females over 45, 26—45, 16—26, 10—16, under 10.

Remington was another Shelter Islander. A Remington Havens, mariner, of Shelter Island died intestate and his widow Rebecca was appointed administratrix in 1818 (R10). I have no record of his marrying a Rebecca, and Jemima Tuthill survived him, according to Mallman. Yet there is a curious temporal accord between his death date and that of the appointment of administratrix.

He was a town trustee in 1814 — but that may have been the other Remington, if such there was.

DANIEL HAVENS—6067 (R23, 24): son of John—530 & Rebecca (Smith) Havens (p 22 ), born pr ca 1770 (based on sibling date) died after 1798, married Mar 4 1798 Phebe Galway (R24).

The Archibald Havens and Osborn Shaw mss (R23) list him before his brother Peter, who was born in 1775. He was a bondsman for the estate of his father, settled in 1798. Nothing else is known of him except what is found in the Havens-Shaw mss, which say he owned the easterly side of Pine Neck, which would put him in Brookhaven — as would be expected, for his father was a Brookhaven man.

PETER HAVENS-6068 (R23): son of John-530 & Rebecca (Smith) Havens (p 22 ), born May 1775 died May 8-18 1822, married Deborah Bartow/Barteau b Feb 29 1780 d May 1 1866 (R23) issue:

The Havens-Shaw mss (R23) give us the only information we have: he conveyed land in Moriches prior to 1814. He is buried in the Bartow burying ground, South Haven: "Our parents Peter Havens b May 1 1775 d May 18 1822 - Deborah Bartow wife of Peter Havens b Feb 29 1780 d May 1 1866." There is another stone for the two children. He was living in Brookhaven in 1814.

It will be seen from the above that this family group was rather more than usual in its intermarriage with other Havenses. The mother of Augustus-6073 was herself a Havens by birth (Phebe-529), and two of Augustus' children married Havenses. We know little about him otherwise except that he was mentioned in the will of his father, 1826.

NATHANIEL S. HAVENS-6076 (M p 243): son of Joseph-534 & Phebe (Havens) Havens (p 22 ), born Sep 18 1778 died Mar 24 1829, married Nov 2 1807 at Sag Harbor Abigail Stewart (R14). Issue:

A., Cynthia E., Charles A., Austin S., Charles A., Jacob T., William W., Nancy M., Esther S., Adeline, and Sarah A. Cartwright, and Phebe E. Tuthill (R10). He was an executor of his father's will.

WILLIAM (?) HAVENS—6082 (R14): son of William—535 & Desire (Havens) Havens (p 23 ) is little more than a conjecture. His father is reported to have had two sons born before 1776, one of them probably William. We do find a William B. Havens listed in the Suffolk Gazette (R14) May 7 1808 as having died at Sag Harbor ae 49, and he could have been this hypothetical William. It is significant that his mother — if she was his mother — died at Sag Harbor in 1830.

John was an Orange Co., N.Y. man, listed in the 1800 census: two males and two females. In the 1810 census there were two males between 27 and 45, one between 17 and 26, three under ten, one female between 27 and 45 and one over 45. The female over 45 in the 1810 census may have been his second wife, the mother of one of his wives, or some other relative. She was not his mother Abigail, for Abigail was listed as head of her own household (R28).

DAVID HAVENS—6098 (R28): son of Benjamin—541 & Abigail (Moore) Havens (p 25 ), born Jul 12-Dec 7 1777, married ca 1802 (estimated from children's birth dates) Elizabeth Aldrich da Silas & Hannah (Williams) Aldrich; issue:

David—6098 was an Orange County, N.Y. man. In 1807 he bought a small lot in New Windsor. In 1813—1843 he served as inspector of schools for a few terms.

He was not listed in the 1800 census, for he probably was not yet married but was still living with his mother, whose census figures confirm this. He was, however, listed in the 1810 census for one male between 27 and 45, one between 17 and 26, one below ten, one female between 17 and 26 and two below ten. The male between 17 and 26 may have been his mysterious brother Selah, if still living, for his mother Abigail at that time was living alone, according to the census. (R28).

BENJAMIN HAVENS—6102 (R28): son of Benjamin—541 & Abigail (Moore) Havens (p 25 ), born Jan 6 1785-7 died May 28 1877 ae 91, married Letitia Schriver; issue:

Jackson M—7118 he worked for a New York bank clearing house.

Daughter—7119 she lived in Richmond, Va.

This Benjamin was Uncle Benny, patron saint of the West Point Military Academy. He ran a tavern in the vicinity which was visited by students. A song "Benny Havens-O" was composed in his honor and is still sung by the students. An old newspaper obituary article from the N.Y. Sun of Jun 1 1877 gives him the children listed above.

SELAH HAVENS—6103 (R28): son of Benjamin—541 & Abigail (Moore) Havens (p 25 ), was probably born ca 1790, based on sibling dates and the fact that he was listed last of the children.

My family records say he died unmarried, but there is a complete lack of further information except a mention in the will of his Uncle Nathaniel—544 (p 27), who left Selah "all my fast state." Inasmuch as Nathaniel lived in Moriches, Long Island, and Selah grew up in Orange County — presumably — the bequest seems odd unless Selah had left home and gone to Long Island. None of Selah's siblings were mentioned in the will in question.

Selah was living with his mother at the time of the 1800 census, but he was not living with her in 1810. This may support the possibility that he had gone to Long Island — or he may have died. Also, he may have been living with his brother David—6098 above, who had a male in his household between the ages of 17 and 26, and Selah's age at that time, if I have estimated his birth correctly, would have been in that bracket.

The above record from Mallman is considerably amplified by information from a Youngs family genealogy (R39). The same source says that Jeremiah—6106 was a carpenter and farmer who was born and married in Moriches and later moved to Jefferson, Schoharie Co., N.Y. after Mar 6 1795. This is confirmed by the Osborn Shaw ms (R23), giving his death date, "leaving a large family." The Young family record (op cit) gives a death date of 1864.

A Dr. Charles M. Havens of Staten Island, who died intestate in 1829, had a brother John of Brookhaven appointed administrator (R10). If it were not for the difference in middle initials, Dr. Charles could be Charles—6110, for he had a brother John, and that is the only pair of those names I have been able to find in this generation. However, Dr. Charles H. Havens is identified as the Charles H. Havens who was elected to the N.Y. State Assembly in 1818 and 1820. (R49).

Hamilton Morton—8156 was known either as H. Morton or, more simply, Morton Havens. He was a carpenter by trade, a trade he taught to at least three of his sons. He lived the later years of his life in Albany N.Y., but where he was born is still not determined. Later in life he was an antique dealer in Albany. He had an active interest in his family history, and he did some research on the subject. He compiled a family record which has been of great benefit to my own research.

He and his brother were veterans of the Civil War, and H. Morton lost an eye to a piece of shell at the battle of Petersburg. He had the piece of shell set as a watch charm for his own wear.

THE ARCHIBALD HAVENS MANUSCRIPT

Notes on the Havens Family in the Town of Brookhaven

Nearly all of the name now living in the town are descendants of John Havens, son of George of Shelter Island, son of William, an early settler of Rhode Island. There is a tradition in the family that they were of Welch ancestry and were then Quakers or married late Quaker families.

The genealogical tables of John and Henry Havens, page 163, Mallman's "Shelter Island and Its Presbyterian Church," are probably the most complete and more nearly correct of any. There are, however, some errors in them that I shall attempt to point out, as well as to give some additional data.

John Havens—3 (George—2, William—1) of Shelter Island, bought Yaphank Neck with the mills at South Haven, April 10, 1745 and died there in 1750. In his will dated June 25, 1750 he calls himself John Havens Sr., mentions wife Sarah (daughter of John and Sarah (Horton) Conklin), oldest son Henry—4, third son William—4, sons Jonathan—4 and Benjamin—4, daughters Sarah—4, Eleanor—4, Mary—4, Phebe—4, and Desire—4.

From the above will there is no doubt there was a son Jonathan—4, but that he married Patience Tuthill and that his descendants are as given by Mallman I believe to be wrong. I would have it that John Havens—3 also had a son John—4, not mentioned in the will, possibly the second son between Henry—4 and William—4, who married Patience Tuthill. See Mather's "Refugees" pages 388 and 609 and that the eight children were by John and Patience rather than by Jonathan and Patience as given.

The assessment roll of Brookhaven for 1749 lists the following Havens names: John, John Jr., Benjamin, and George. In Ross' History of Long Island, Vol. II p 331, he records John Havens as conveying to son John lands with buildings, etc. on Hog Neck (North Haven) in 1748.

In unacknowledged deeds and other papers in possession of my family for several generations and now or formerly in mine are (1) a deed in which Martha (widow of Joshua) Halsey conveys to John Havens part of a lot on Great Hog Neck Jan 14 1744-5; (2) a deed in which William Nicoll conveys to Henry Havens 99½ acres on Shelter Island Aug 17 1737; (3) a deed in which Henry Havens conveys to John Havens Jr. of Southampton the same premises on Shelter Island Jun 10 1748; and (4) a deed in which Thomas Conklin conveys to John Havens one undivided half of Warrata Neck (Center Moriches) in 1955. When a signature appears in these papers it is John, not Jonathan.

The names John and Jonathan in the early times were not synonymous. In 1769 and after, John—4's wife was Katurah (probably second wife). His will, dated March 5 1783 probated Jan 22 1799 mentions wife Katurah, sons Benjamin—5, Nathaniel—5, John—5, Jeremiah—5, daughter Charlotte—5. He also had two daughters not mentioned in his will, who lived at Oyster Ponds (Orient), possibly Mehitable—5 Moore and Bethiah—5 Hackett. Another daughter, Jerusha, Mallman says married Elkanah Smith. I am not sure that she was a daughter of John—4, but there was a Jerusha of that period, and I think she may have married a Platt.

The Bible record of John Havens—5 (Captain John or John 3d, to distinguish him from John Jr—5 son of Henry—4) gives this: "...s father of John Havens aforementioned ----- this life Nov 5 1797 aged 86 years."

From the data given above I should say that the John Havens who died Nov 5 1797 aged 86 was born in 1711 a son of John—3 (George—2, William—1).

Whether Jonathan—4 left descendants or not I do not know. Mr. Dwight C. Haven of Wilmington, N.C. in 1932 said there is a family living in Connecticut who descend from a Jonathan Havens from Long Island, and he thought this may be the line.

BENJAMIN HAVENS—5 (John—4, John—3) mentioned in the will of John—4, was living in Orange County Sept 25 1790, where he signed a promissory note to John Havens—4. A Benjamin married Mitty Moore Dec 19 1789 (Salmon Record). Mr. Dwight C. Haven gives the Bible record of a Benjamin of Orange County as Benjamin Havens b 1744 d Aug 11 1798 m Abigail Amittee Moore; they had, among other children, sons Benjamin—6 and Selah—6. Mr. Haven also said that the son Benjamin—6 was the noted innkeeper made famous by the West Point cadets.

SELAH HAVENS—6 is named in the will of his uncle Nathaniel Havens—5.

NATHANIEL HAVENS—5 (John—4, John—3) married Pamela ---- who died aged 50; her gravestone is in the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. There were no children. He is mentioned in the will of John—4. He lived on the former Dr. E. P. Jarvis place, Bellevue Avenue, Center Moriches. He signed the Association in 1775. His will, dated Dec 14 1805, probated Feb 1 1809, mentions wife Pamela, Selah the youngest son of his brother Benjamin, Ginnie (Jane) daughter of Jerusha—5 Platt and Ginnie (Jane) daughter of Jerusha—6 and Bethiah (Youngs) Havens.

· CHARLOTTE HAVENS—5 (John—4, John—3) probably died unmarried.

JOHN HAVENS—5 (John—4, John—3) was known as Captain John or John 3d to distinguish him from John Jr—5 son of Henry—4. He married Abigail daughter of Merriby and Mary (Strong) Bostwick. They had nine children. The line as given by Mallman is substantially correct. He signed the Association in May 1775. The census of 1776 makes him head of a family. He at one time owned all of Warrata Neck (on which I now live), half from his father John—4, a third from Thomas Conkling, and a sixth from Henry and Katurah Moore. He was commissioned an ensign by Governor DeLancy in 1796 and was made captain by Governor George Cheston in 1786.

JEREMIAH HAVENS—5 (John—4, John—3) died Aug 21 1820 aged 63; he married 1) Mehitabel ---- who died Sep 10 1807 age 47; 2) ----. Their issue: Joseph C—6 d Jun 3 1801 ae 18; Daniel T—6 b 1789 m Elizabeth Raynor d Feb 28 1868; John Symes—6 b 1796 m Nancy Smith d Apr 6 1864; Jerusha—6 b 1791 m Coe Downing d Apr 13 1876; Maria S—6 b Jan 9 1810 m Nathaniel Munsell d Mar 1 1893.

Jeremiah bought Ariskonk Neck (Center Moriches) from John and Sarah Gardiner in 1798 and sold same except 30 acres to Benjamin Petty in 1801. At one time he owned the mill property now Kaler-Wilson and is said at some time to have lived in Aquebogue.

DANIEL T HAVENS—6 among other children had son Symes from whom most of the family name here are descendants. John Symes—6 had sons Joseph Conkling—7 of East Moriches and Charles S—7 of Brooklyn. Maria S-6 had descendants Willard and Frank Munsell-Ashtins of Middle Island and others.

HENRY HAVENS—4 (John—3) married Abigail daughter of Daniel and Mehitabel (Horton) Tuthill; issue: John Jr—5 who married Rebecca daughter of Joseph Smith of Huntington; a daughter—5 who married Elisha Howell. Henry—4 was the oldest son of John—3, as mentioned in the latter's will of 1750. The census of 1776 lists him as head of a family with one male over 16 and two under 16. About 1770 he owned the three necks: Hog or Hawkins, Pines, and Littleworth (Moriches), and at about that time, with Col. Josiah Smith, he built a dam and grist mill on the east branch of the Mantic River (Paper Mill Pond) with a run of native millstones. His son John Jr—5 later had a sawmill on the site. The remains of this dam, just north and west of the present Montauk Highway, are still visible. In 1775 or 1776 he sold Hog or Hawkins Neck to Daniel Downs; his wife Abigail also signed the deed. He is said later to have lived on the present Wilcox place, Old Neck, and possibly later in Brooklyn.

JOHN HAVENS JR—5 son of Henry—4 (John—3) died 1786 married Rebecca Smith daughter of Joseph Smith of Huntington. Children: Daniel—6 married Phebe ----; Peter—6 married Deborah Bartow; Patience—6 married Samuel Smith of Smithtown Jan 10 1786 (S.T. Church Record); Henry—6; Rebecca—6; Abigail—6.

John—5 signed the Association May 1775. The census of 1776 makes him head of a family with one male over 16, two under 16, one female over 16 and four under. The will of Joseph Smith of Huntington Mar 30 1773 (Smith Wills), wife Martha, mentions "the two daughters of my daughter Rebecca Havens, Abigail and Rebecca and her son Henry." (See Mr. Shaw for deed, Havens to Hawkins, Brookhaven). Possibly the Rebecca Havens mentioned above was the wife of John Jr—5. John—5 died intestate in 1786 and letters of administration were granted Nov 28 1798 to sons Peter and Daniel and son-in-law Samuel Smith of Smithtown. He owned Pine and possibly Littleworth Neck, probably from his father Henry—4.

DANIEL HAVENS—6 son of John Jr—5 (Henry—4, John—3) married Phebe ---- and owned the easterly side of Pine Neck, formerly his father's. No further record.

PETER HAVENS—6 (John Jr—5, Henry—4, John—3) was born May 1 1775 died May 18 1822; he married Deborah Bartow born Feb 29 1780 died May 1 1866. Children: Abbie Tuttle—7 b Mar 11 1803 d Apr 18 1886; Ann Maria—7 b Sep 18 1809 d May 30 1898. Their gravestones are in the Bartow burying ground, South Haven. Peter—6 owned the west side of Pine Neck and part of Littleworth Neck, formerly his father's (John Jr—5). He sold it to William Smith, who sold it to James Fanning, later James M. Fanning, later Edmund Halleck.

DAUGHTER—5 (Henry—4, John—3) married Elisha Howell; their daughter Sarah—6 married Erastus Foster of Quogue and had daughters Julia P—7 and Sally H—7, both now deceased.

WILLIAM HAVENS—4 (John—3) married Ruth ---- who died 1759 aged 39. He was the third son mentioned in John 3's will. On Feb 14 1757 he conveyed to Benjamin Havens—4 Ariskonk Neck and half of Orchard Neck; his wife Ruth also signed the deed (Unacknowledged Deeds Lib III p 99). He may have conveyed the other half of Orchard Neck to John Havens—4, for the latter in 1769 conveyed to his son John—5 part of the east side of the Neck.

BENJAMIN HAVENS—4 (John—3) married Abigail daughter of Thomas and Susannah (Thompson) Strong. Children: Selah—5 married Sarah Strong, died Jan 29 1785; Charity—5 d Jan 11 1774 in 8th year of her age — her gravestone is next to that of Selah—5 in the burying ground in Beachfern Road.

Benjamin—4 is mentioned in the will of John—3, 1750. He was on the assessment roll of Brookhaven in 1749 and signed the Association in May 1775. The census of 1776 for St. George Manor and the Patentship of Moriches, taken by him, makes him head of a family with one male over 50, two above 16, two under 16, two females over 16, and one under. He bought from his brother William—4 Ariskonk Neck and half of Orchard Neck in 1757. He possibly lived and kept a tavern near the site of the present Moriches Inn. He is the Benjamin Havens of St. George's Manor referred to in the advertisement in a newspaper of March 5 1772 (Long Island's History by Jacqueline Overton) and again as "a most pernicious caitiff" (Onderdonk's Revolutionary Incidents of Suffolk and Kings counties, page 84, Jul 3 1779). He later lived at Bedford, N.Y. where he died (Strong family history).

SELAH HAVENS—5 (Benjamin—4, John—3) b 1755 d 1785 married Sarah daughter of Nathan Strong of Orange County; no record of any children. He signed the Association May 1775 and was a soldier in the Rev. (Capt. Selah) Strong's company, Joseph Smith's regiment. His gravestone is in the burying ground on Beachfern Road. His widow afterwards married the Rev. David Rose.

Author's Note: The manuscript concludes with some notes on others of the family name whose lines Archibald Havens could not fix and who might or might not belong to the Brookhaven families. Details on these are included in my article on the subject in Long Island Forum, May and June, 1974.
